Mrs. Elsie McCollum, McCauley Pioneer, Died December 14th

Mrs. Elsie Malone McCollum, an outstanding pioneer West Texas woman, died at her home in McCauley Wednesday, December 14, following an illness which had confined her to her room for more than three years. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in the McCauley Methodist church conducted by the Rev. Clark, pastor of the St. John's Methodist church of Stamford, and a long time friend of the family of the deceased. Assisting ministers were Rev. Grady Adcock, Rev. Dixon and Rev. C. E. Dick.

Burial was in the McCauley cemetery with the Barrow Funeral Directors of Hamlin in charge. Pallbearers were F. L. Rector, O. T. Hennington, J. A. Jackson and W. B. Mayo.

Elsie Malone was born September 14, 1859, in Trezevant, Tennessee, where she spent the early part of her life and was prominent as a teacher of speech and a reader, continuing her work as teacher and entertainer for many years after she came to West Texas. In the many years of her study she had gained a repertoire of several hundred readings including three books of the Bible.

On June 25, 1885, she was married to Levi McCollum in Trezevant, Tennessee, and in 1897 she and her husband came to Haskell, Texas, where they lived until 1906 when they came to McCauley to make their home and established a mercantile business which was among the first in McCauley. Her husband preceded her in death some years ago.

Mrs. McCollum joined the Methodist church early in life, and was active in many phases of church work. She organized the Methodist Missionary Society in McCauley and for many years served as president of the organization. She served as writer and assistant editor of the Christian Advocate, the Methodist church paper, during the time the late Dr. Rankin was editor. Mrs. McCollum was a writer of some note, having several poems and stories published in various papers and magazines.

Survivors are a son, Levi McCollum, and a daughter, Elsie Lee McCollum and a grand daughter, Mary Ann McCollum, all of McCauley. Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. F. L. Peebles and Mrs. John G. Homes, of Trezevant, Tenn., and a brother, B. H. Malone, of New York City.

Cecil Sellers, wife and baby were here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Sellers. Cecil is stationed at Jacksonville, Fla.

Free Maternal Care For Soldiers' Wives

Austin, Texas, Dec. 20—Federal funds are now available with which to provide maternal medical care for wives of enlisted men in the armed forces and for medical and nursing care for their infants, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. The Children's Bureau of the United States Department of Labor has released funds to the Texas State Department with which to administer this program.

Two distinct services will be rendered under this program, explained Dr. Cox: complete maternity care for wives of enlisted men of the fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh grades in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard; medical and hospital care for sick infants under one year of age whose fathers are within these four pay grades.

Maternity care as provided under this program will consist of medical care during the prenatal period, child birth, and six weeks thereafter—including any complications resulting from pregnancy.

Sick infants will be given medical, hospital, and nursing care during the first year of life. Nursing care, in the home, will be made available by local health departments where there are established services. Besides nursing care will be provided only upon the recommendation of the attending physician.

Forms of requesting care may be obtained from the local or State health departments, Welfare agencies, American Red Cross Chapters, USO centers and local physicians.

The United States Congress made it clear in passing the legislation making provision for this service that it is not a "charity" service, but that it is to be provided as the right of any wife and infant of an enlisted man in the fourth, fifth, sixth, or seventh pay grades of our armed forces.

Card of Thanks

We wish to express our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors who sent the lovely flowers to our mother's funeral in Rotan.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Deel and Children

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Miers of McCauley do not forget their children and maybe some others at Christmas time. They are sending the Herald to T. R. Miers, Mrs. W. L. Curry, W. W. Miers, H. H. Miers, Mrs. Sim Reeves, Mrs. James B. Wall, Roy S. Miers, Mrs. Joe Miers, and Mrs. Ellis Eivens, through their George Darden reporter. Thanks all of you.

What Are You Doing For Our Soldier Boys?

The government is already sending materials to Jones county Red Cross Chapter for its additional quota of soldiers' kit bags. By January 15th, 150 kits on regular quota are to be sent in and the extra assignment of 288 must be gotten out by May 30.

Recent pledges and donations have been made for filling bags from Lueders Forty-Two club, in Anson from Helpers Methodist Sunday School class, Woman's Club, Tuesday Study club, Eastern Star and Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary; in Stamford from Baptist ten year old church group and Harvesters class; Methodist junior class, Dorcas class, Wesleyan Guild, Presbyterian Woman's Auxiliary, Eastern Star, Busy Hour club, Pierian club, Jones Co. Home Economist, and Mrs. R. R. Buie and Mrs. B. C. Barrow.

It will require more than $400 to fill soldiers' kits and contributions and pledges must continue to get out Jones County's part. The government supplies materials, Red Cross volunteers make the kits, and donors furnish funds for buying contents which help men on every fighting front with everyday essentials.

Just a few have written to you through the Herald, we can not use much space this year, so we ask you to remember all of them just the same. Maybe some time after the war is over we can use the little folks' letters again.

Duke Was Appointed As Service Officer For Jones County

In regular meeting Monday, the commissioners court employed Roy Duke of Stamford, an ex-service man, as Jones County veterans' service officer to begin his duties Jan. first.

The 48th Legislature provided that commissioners' courts might employ such an officer and provided for the qualifications and duties of this officer. He must have been an ex-service man, must have had experience or schooling or training in army service connection work. Mr. Duke has attended the schools conducted by the state organizations of the American Legion under the direction and supervision of the United States Veterans' Administration and the state veterans' officer.

His duties will consist of assisting veterans', veterans' orphans, veterans' dependents and their families in establishing service connection with the United States, and to handle all claims for compensation, hospitalization and insurance or any other benefits arising by virtue of a man or woman in Jones county having served in the armed forces of the United States.

This service eliminates the necessity of a veteran or his family employing outside help to assist in this service connection and gives to them the advantage of an experienced man and an authoritative officer who would have access to all county and state records and the service of an official county and federal service officer.

The motion for the employment of this officer was made by Joel V. Grimes of Precinct 2, seconded by G. R. Riddle of Precinct 1, and unanimously adopted.

Post War Roads Planned

At the meeting Monday the commissioners' court also began to formulate plans for post-war road building, favoring a long range project of permanent rock and concrete bridges, with a program to join with the federal government in building all-weather connecting lateral roads. It is the courts idea that by securing now standard engineering on these structures, Jones county will be ready at the close of hostilities to join in the federal post-war planning program on a conservative basis to use such federal grants, if any, toward permanent leasing construction. Further plans and projects were discussed by the court of building up a tax reserve so that the county would be in a better position to retain the present tax rate and attempt to avoid the necessity of raising this rate to the rapid rise in prices.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

AND A LITTLE BIT OF

MANY SERVICE STRIPES that we see on the boys from the Army and Navy are quite puzzling to the average citizen. It would seem that some better method could be devised to let the folks back home understand what the stripes, badges, and medals all mean or stand for. . . . course we all have seen them illustrated in magazines and books, and we also have been told again and again. . . but who remembers all those combinations? . . . meet a boy, and before you know it, we ask "Say what do all those stripes stand for?" He or she tells us and in a few minutes we meet another down the street and we again wonder "Soldier, what do yours stand for?" . . . don't you imagine they get embarrassed or at least tired of answering questions? Fellows, ladies, be patient, you see we are so far over here in land-locked Texas we don't learn fast. Hardly know there's a war on.

There is a speech on record, made by Speaker Sam Rayburn, on Dec. 9 that every American should read and ponder over. We plan to print it in its entirety after Christmas, probably next week. It would be a pretty good thing if every paper in the land would use it prominently just as the horrible year, yet glorious year of 1944 starts on its journey. No speech in many months has attracted so much attention. Look out for it.

Pin-headed politicians keep harping on "Bureaucrats". One of them is a Texas Panhandle Congressman. . . wonder if he has anything constructive to feed his voters? Wonder if it takes such poison to get one elected again? Brain storms like that prove he is no statesman. Didn't Congress create governmental bureaus to carry on our affairs? If a Congressman does not like the bureau or what they are doing with it, why not offer a bill to repeal it? This nation is getting too much braying from those who are expected to use just common sense.

Mrs. Hibbs Milsap left Friday for Lubbock to make her home. Mr. Milsap who is with a railway Co., has been in Lubbock for several months but due to housing conditions, Mrs. Milsap had remained here.

Greetings---

CHRISTMAS AGAIN

There is no entering into yesterday, by revolving of time we approach the tomorrow, and as we stand upon the threshold looking out upon space to encounter, we see forming the year

1944

Let us step forth with faith and confidence; guide us at home and abroad by employing the right efforts, by cooperation, coordination with an understanding of these working principles, combined with the basic principle of life ---- give us hope to see the New Year. Bring freedom and justice to all and the influence of peace gently settle upon and envelope all nations, and the loved ones can return to their own places.

We are grateful to you for your patronage, your understanding of the general conditions, your cooperation, your loyalty, confidence and friendship. These things combined has made the year 1943 a pleasure.

Wishing you every one a GOOD CHRISTMAS, and an unfolding of all that's good in the New Year.

SINCERELY,

Lieut. Gov. Smith Gets Bale of Hay

Perhaps the most unusual gift to send a man, especially the Lieut. Governor, was that of a bale of hay, which he received by express last Friday. Here's the press report of it:

Austin, Dec. 17--A bale of hay was delivered by an expressman at the state capitol today, addressed to Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith.

It was sent from Sweetwater, Texas, by a donor signing himself "Buck Johnson" to this Merry Christmas message:

"You are making a big enough jackass of yourself to eat this." Smith has aroused considerable opposition as well as commendation for speeches critical of the New Deal and condemning strikes.

Now we would gather from that that Mr. Johnson, a well known and aggressive business man, thinks the many talks over the state sound much like some kind of braying.

Smith's answer:

"Dear Buck--Your Christmas gift has been received. Perhaps you intended to insult me, but, Buck, I'd rather be a jackass eating hay than to be an ingrate. I have not forgotten when I most foolishly commended you to Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel for highway commissioner. I am grateful to O'Daniel that he was wise enough to ignore my recommendation."

So this may be called the "Jackass Controversy". Mr. Johnson must have sold his cows and got tired of looking at his hay, and every time he saw a bale he thought of some kind of noisy animal.

To Our Boys

Christmas comes again----the third since Pearl Harbor. To some of us it will bring a brief season of enjoyment. To others it will awaken old recollections, and thoughts of fighting, and of men far away, but there will be fun, and laughter too, this Christmas and that is the way you would want it. God Bless You.

Boys, We Can't Say "Merry Christmas"

For we know in your minds you will be lonely, and yearning to be in this beautiful, prosperous, wonderful free land of home---America---we know some of you will be too busy to think of home and loved ones---but by the time this reaches you, in some cases, Christmas will be long past and the eventful year of 1944 will be on its way. Your lives have been fashioned by a Loving Providence to fulfill a task for your homes and your country and all humanity that will live down through the years and Christmas for a century-----It is proper to say "God Bless You"---We, like millions of other Americans, yearn to do something that will lighten your task and hasten your return to loved ones and home---we hope you will be conscious on Christmas night that you are constantly in the minds of the people at Hamlin who know and love you---again, "God Bless You".

LETTER FROM ENGLAND

Dec. 5, 1943

Dear Mr. Pope:

Will you please route the Herald to the new address? My subscription, I believe, expires in February. Enclosed is a money order for two dollars ($2.00), for which I should like the subscription extended for whatever period that amount will cover.

The English climate is not like any I have seen back in the States. San Francisco is very cool, damp and foggy at times, but there is not such a penetrating chill as is found here. For heat we use iron stoves and burn coal and coke. Coke, as you know, is harder to start burning, but makes a good fire.

The Army food here is good and plentiful, which was a bit surprising to some. At breakfast there is usually some kind of fruit juice. Of course there are few fresh eggs and of fresh milk. Part of the butter is canned and has a greasy texture. There is plenty of sugar---also plenty of too strong coffee.

People over here are saving with paper to combat the shortage. Prominent London newspapers usually have only four pages. The paper (daily except Sunday) of the armed forces over here is a four-page affair about the size of the "Sunday News". It carries the latest war news, sports, a couple of cartoons, feature stories about military personnel over here, and now and then a story about the activities of some movie actress.

Hoping that the gas pressure is strong enough for the cold days ahead, and wishing you the best of health and luck, I remain,

Sincerely yours,
T-Sgt. J. N. McAllister

Corporal James L. Owen came in Wednesday from the McClosky General Hospital at Temple, for a mere stop in Hamlin while on his way to see his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Owen at Albuquerque, N. M. James is slowly recovering from a bad case of appendicitis that came near getting him at Olan, North Africa. James says he certainly did hate to miss going with his buddies into Sicily.

Master Sgt. Howard E. Crow of Dalhart came down Wednesday for his Christmas at home. You remember this is another Hamlin boy who won honors in the Southwest Pacific battles.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. We all shall watch his progress and success with the boys in the armed services, wherever he may go.

Home canned berries play leading roles in the pantry because they contribute vitamins and minerals for health, can be used in many ways, and are easy and inexpensive to can.

Blackberries, blueberries, boysenberries, raspberries, elderberries—can them all and others, too, with little or no sugar. Sugar gives them better flavor and more calories, but has nothing to do with keeping qualities.

Berries are too precious to waste and none will be wasted if you will see to it that every step taken is the right one. First of all, wash, rinse and examine your jars. Be sure to inspect the top edges of those to be sealed with glass top seal or two-piece vacuum seal closures because top seals refuse to work unless tops of the jars are perfect. Cover jars, glass lids, and zinc caps with luke-warm water, heat to boiling and keep hot until needed. Wash and rinse rubbers and vacuum seal lids and drop them in boiling water—they don't need boiling unless you plan to do old-fashioned open kettle canning—then they must be boiled a few minutes to sterilize.

Every berry must be fresh, sound, ripe, and firm. Wash them carefully and then take your choice of canning methods.

Gladys Kimbrough, Home Service Director of Ball Brothers Company, prefers to hot-pack berries. This is how it is done. Place berries in a wide, shallow pan; add one-half cup sugar, or less, for each quart of berries; set the pan over low heat and simmer until the berries heat through and the sugar dissolves (remember you don't have to use any sugar); pour the hot berries into clean, hot jars and process five minutes in hot water-bath canner.

If you prefer cold packing, fill a jar about half full with raw berries, then tap it gently on a folded cloth to shake the berries down. When the jar is filled to within a half-inch of the top, add enough hot syrup to cover the berries. Process 20 minutes in a water-bath canner.

Syrup for four quarts of berries may be made by boiling two cups sugar and three cups water or berry juice together until the sugar dissolves. If you are a little short on sugar—and who isn't these days?—try making the syrup of one measure sugar, one measure corn syrup, and one-half measure water or berry juice. This syrup seems rather thick and sweet, but it will become thinner and less sweet after it has been with the berries a few weeks. And if you have no sugar at all, cover the berries with hot berry juice or boiling water; seal or partly seal the jars (follow the manufacturer's instructions) and process 20 minutes in a water-bath canner.

If you want your berries to really star, can them without sugar. Then they can be used as if they were fresh from the patch. The juice can be drained off and used for making jelly. The berries can go into a pie or into jam—a jam turnover tucked in a lunch box will make the noon hour much more pleasant for somebody and surely you need nobody to tell you that jelly and jam are far more delicious when freshly made than at any other time.

Merry Christmas And Happy New Year

The Age-Old words should not lose meaning in these war-torn times.

The joy of peace is appreciated more, when we know it can not be realized.

Let us pray for an early achievement of a lasting PEACE that will reunite our loved ones who are now absent.

That those in service for the freedom of the world, may be sustained by His grace, protected by His power, and that sorrowing loved ones at home be comforted.

That we may begin an early rehabilitation of shattered homes, cities and country-sides among all nations, and for the assurance that all people of good will, everywhere, may be free.

May 1944 bring a full measure of anticipated blessings

Sincerely,

NAZARENE CHURCH

As we approach Christmas season let's not forget its beginning, its purpose and the place it shall hold in our lives.

A gift? Yes but more than that for it was a Savior given for a lost world. So we should worship Him in deed and serve Him with all our being.

A special Christmas program will be given in the church Sunday night December 26, at 7:45, by the Juniors, directed by Miss Maggie Seymour and assisted by Mrs. Avalene Murphree. We welcome you to this program.

Sunday School will begin at 9:45 A. M. with the worship service at 11 o'clock with a Christmas message by the pastor.

Do not forget the program at 7:45 P. M.

Dan D. Jones, Pastor

Sheriff Bill Dunwoody and his two daughters, Mrs. Yates Stafford of Fort Worth and Sgt. Mary (Babe) Dunwoody of the WAC Training Center at Daytona Beach, Florida, were visitors at the Herald Wednesday.

WAR BONDS

U. S. NAVY PHOTO

More and more our armies are landing our fighting troops by parachute, disrupting enemy lines, enemy communications, but paying a heavy price in casualties.

Silken fineries and their substitutes are fast passing from the market to provide safe landings for our distant fighting men. We can still buy silk and nylon for them with War Bonds and Stamps.

U. S. Treasury Department

Your money goes into battle every time you invest in War Bonds—goes up to the German lines in the form of tanks, planes, assault boats as pictured here in the Mediterranean area.

Success of our troops depends upon the help they get from the home front. Bullets fired yesterday won't win tomorrow's battle. War Bonds bought last month won't pay for our next offensive. Give your dollars action: Buy More War Bonds.

POT SHOTS FROM McCAULEY

BY GEO. DARDEN

A Christmas card and the following note comes from our good friend, Glenn Gray, Seaman 2-C, stationed at San Diego:

Dear George: If I were in McCauley this Saturday night, the 18, you could marry me to the nicest girl in the world. As it is, I am going to have to be married here my second year in the Navy. Well congratulations Glenn and Betty.

Friends in this community will remember Glenn Gray as an ex-McCauley High student and he was also welter weight boxing champion for this district in the Golden Gloves tournament several years ago. And Glenn was the friendly type of fellow that makes friends wherever he goes and we wish for his and his new bride every thing good in this land.

Sgt. and Mrs. J. B. Jayroe from Indiana arrived last Friday to spend the holidays with their parents here and at Sylvester.

We acknowledge a pretty Christmas card and a note telling us how they enjoy the Pot-Shots from Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gist of Glendale, Calif. Mrs. Gist is the former Ruby Rhoten of McCauley.

School was out last Friday for the holidays until Monday, Dec. 27th.

Pfc. Louis Earl Madden and Mrs. Madden of Amarillo are visiting parents in McCauley and Hamlin during the holidays.

Pvt. Leldon Clifton and Mrs. Clifton visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Rector last week. Leldon is now stationed in Illinois.

Sunday afternoon visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Darden were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pickron of Hamlin and Mr. and Mrs. Dono Darden and daughter of Rotan.

J. O. Jones of Slaton visited in the home of C. D. Jones and family last week.

Shopping in Abilene last Saturday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Courtney and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Jayroe and son of Lamesa were Sunday visitors in the home of Mrs. Vera Jayroe.

Mrs. Knox Campbell and children of Talpa, Texas, visited last week end with Supt. Campbell in McCauley.

The McCauley school turned out for the holidays last Friday. Each room at the school had its Christmas trees after a nice program in the main auditorium.

There will be a special service at the eleven o'clock hour at the McCauley Baptist church the first Sunday in January. The program is sponsored by the Men's Bible Class and you will be glad you came.

There is a defense plant in California that has a big sign outside of its gates which reads: "Buy bonds and help Texas win the war." Come to think of it neighbor, they may have something there.

O-O-O

COMMENT No. 1: We have been hearing a lot here of late about the wounded boys that are returning from the battlefields and Congress hasn't provided for their welfare after they have been discharged from the hospitals. Will Congress twiddle their thumbs and again watch disabled soldiers sell apples, poppies, and pencils on the street corners as was the case after the last war? The citizens of our country should see that Congress makes provisions for disabled veterans. It is a disgrace for our boys to come home without a future and especially the boys who have been disabled in the war. If the country is worth fighting for then it's worth living for. If we can send millions to England, Russia and China, then we can provide millions for disabled veterans or know the reason why. If we must discontinue our help to starving Europe in order to help our own fighting boys, then let's discontinue charity in Europe. Congress had better wake up and provide now for our service men or there will be a lot of new faces on Capitol Hill—and election year is just around the corner.

COMMENT No. 2: Walter Winchell on his Sunday night broadcast made the statement that residents of nearby internment camps in La. entertained German prisoners at a party at which prisoners as well as their guards got drunk, and also that said German prisoners were permitted to visit women of a shady reputation outside of the camp. Winchell always has the dope in black and white before he makes such a statement. Ladies and gentlemen of America, it is a disgrace to our boys who are fighting the Nazis for such to be permitted within the United States of America. If the F. B. I. and other law enforcement agencies can't stop such practices, then the government should call on the farmers and cowboys of West Texas to ride herd on all war prisoners.

A DARDEN-O-GRAM

Mrs. Marvin Rhoton and children came in last week from Midland, California, for their Christmas with home folks. They accompanied Robert Jackson, who came to visit his folks at the Plaster Mills.
